Watch C. Mark and John Mark talk about the 100 DD on TV

The "100 Deadliest Days" is a time period every year that spans from Memorial Day to Labor Day when young drivers are at a greater risk. Over the past 5 years, over 3,500 people have died in car wrecks related to a teen driver during these months. The most contributing factor in all of these wrecks was speed. Followed by drinking and driving, and distracted driving. We as a community, and as parents, need to do a better job teaching safe driving habits to our youth.

This summer, Warren & Griffin encourages all families with young drivers to fill out this "Parent - Teen Agreement" that will create a conversation.

We encourage you to sit down, and talk about how driving can be dangerous, and the consequences of actions.

Every teenager who brings our law firm a filled out sheet this summer will receive a $10 Chick-fil-a gift card!
